STATINTL

Jennifer,

As we have already agreed, this is not one for the DCI. Actually, if their suggestion for the topic be taken literally, they would be better off with someone from State or Defense. If not, Mr. Knoche or Mr. Walsh might wish to do this, perhaps combined with some activity at Yale.

Dear Mr. Walters;

The University Times of Cal State L.A. is putting together a story on CIA recruitment activities (secret or otherwise) on college campuses throughout the country, in particular CSLA, and would like to know how the CIA feels on this issue in the form of a return letter.

The University Times is not interested in sensationalism, exposes or a slanted attitude in regards to this CIA story. Instead we are interested in objectivity in this story of interest to our readership.

Your comments will be held in the uppermost regard and reported in the true nature of their context. Thank you for your time and courtesy.

Sincerely,

Tom Semponis

Mr. William Colby
CIA Headquarters
Langley, VA

Dear Mr. Colby:

During the Fall Quarter (September 27 - November 29, 1976) I will be teaching a class entitled The CIA Question at California State University at Hayward. You are cordially invited to address the class on any aspect of the Agency's structure or activities that you wish.

The class will meet on Mondays and Wednesdays from 4:00 to 5:50 pm. At the present time, all dates during that time period are open except October 18. Ample opportunity for student questions should be available following your remarks.

Regrettably, the University does not have funds for honoraria or travel expenses. Nevertheless, I hope that this will not dissuade you and that we may hear from you positively.

Sincerely,

John D. Hancock
Professor of Mathematics and Education

P.S. If you wish to discuss this matter on the telephone, try my office (415) 881-3449, my home (415) 494-0465, or leave a message at the Mathematics Department Office (415) 881-3414.
